

The Secret History Puzzle 4: Finale

Mufaro Machaya and Mark Haddadin

March 15, 2024

Answer Key

This puzzle requires the shift key from the arabic puzzle. 'TO ENSURE THAT WE TAKE BUNNY OUT IN THE CLEANEST AND LEAST TRACE-ABLE WAY POSSIBLE,' which is just the solution to the arabic puzzle. It's largely based on red herrings. You are given multiple different puzzle guides. You just have to put 2 and 2 together to figure out which one to use.

Final Letter (End State)

Dear Reader,

You've made it this far. You really, truly do deserve nothing but the full and honest truth. And the truth is, well, that nothing about those murders ever was nearly as simple as they seemed. Honestly, the truth is that I lack so many certainties and key pieces of information regarding what exactly happened the night of the fateful bacchanal or of the intricate mental decline that led Henry to commit suicide that at all times of day, even all of these years later, the endless stream of questions I have that will never be satisfactorily answered haunt me every waking second. The only truth to be found is that I am in pure agony, caused simultaneously by remembering the part I had to play in this spiral coupled with the opposing helplessness I felt to stop any of it.

Every day, I think back to my last spiritual encounter with Henry. I have no idea where his soul may be now, but if one thing is certain, I doubt that there is much perceived difference between where he lies beyond and the awful life I must endure.

Goodbye, old friend.

Richard.
